MeitY to Revoke Ban Orders on Some Digital Lending Apps

FIRMS GET A BREATHER Individual orders sent to LazyPay, Kissht, indiabullshomeloans.com, buddyloan.com and faircent.com

Pranav Mukul & Aashish Aryan

A Way Forward

SOURCES SAID

- Apps have been warned that they could be banned again if found to be lax in resolving user complaints.
- None of the gaming and gambling apps that were barred from operating in India have been given any leniency.
- MeitY has been scrutinising the submissions by apps to ascertain whether the ban was necessary.
- In addition to these platforms, "a few more" will also be unlocked.

New Delhi: The ministry of electronics and information technology (MeitY) has started issuing orders to internet service providers (ISPs) and Play Store operator Google to unblock some of the digital lending apps and websites that were part of a list of apps banned by the government recently, multiple people aware of the development told ET.

This came after online loan platforms submitted documents to the government proving they were regulated entities.

One of the people privy to the matter said MeitY was sending individual orders and that revocation orders have been sent out for a few platforms including PayU-owned LazyPay and Kissht.

Others that were a part of MeitY's list to be unblocked on Friday include Indiabulls Housing Finance's indiabullshomeloans.com, buddyloan.com, faircent.com and Aptoid versions of some digital lending platforms such as KreditBee and miPocket.

While miPocket has shrugged off its association with third-party app stores like Aptoid, KreditBee did not respond to ET's queries on the matter.

ET was able to confirm independently that ISPs had unblocked these websites.

Sources said that the apps that have been asked to submit relevant documents to show that they are legal have also been warned that they could be banned again if found to be lax in resolving user complaints.

plaints or putting in place measures to avoid fraud.

None of the gaming and gambling apps that were barred from operating in India have, however, been given any leniency and they will remain banned, a source close to the development said.

Emails sent to Indiabulls Housing Finance and Faircent did not elicit a response. A PayU spokesperson did not respond to the development immediately. Buddy Loan could not be reached for comment.

"MeitY has received documents from several platforms over the last few days and has been scrutinising the submissions to ascertain whether the ban was necessary or not. We have concluded that some of these platforms need not be blocked and, therefore, some ban orders are being revoked," a government official said.

In addition to these platforms, the official said "a few more" will also be unlocked. Separately, a cyber-awareness Twitter handle maintained by the Ministry of Home Affairs on Friday started putting out names of digital lending apps that are "learned to have been hosted from hostile foreign entities".

These included Crazy Monkey, Cash Advance, Taka Mall, Small Credit, Buddy Cash. The handle also advised users to "always avoid loans from RBI-regulated entities". ET reported on Thursday that online lending platforms that fell under a list of apps blocked by the Centre recently have started submitting documents detailing their shareholding structure to the government.

The developments had come in the backdrop of the government issuing blocking orders for a clutch of digital lending apps, including those run by Indian companies.

"We thank the government and MeitY for revoking the order to block Kissht. The government has shown unrelenting support in ensuring that credible and fully compliant apps such as Kissht continue to work towards greater financial inclusivity in the country," founder Ranvir Singh said on the revocation of the order.

'AIIMS Cyberattack Due to Improper Network Segmentation'

New Delhi: A technical analysis by the country's nodal cybersecurity agency, the Indian Computer Emergency Response Team (CERT-In), on the AIIMS cyberattack has revealed that the IT networks of the government-run hospital were compromised "by unknown threat actors due to improper network segmentation", minister of state for caused operational disruption due to non-functionality of critical applications," Chandrasekhar said. The cyberattack lasted for more than 15 days during November and December. Chandrasekhar had at the time termed the attack as "a conspiracy". "It is clearly a conspiracy, and it has been planned by forces that are pretty significant. It is a sophisticated ransomware attack," he had said.

Alibaba Exits Paytm, Sells 3.3% Stake for ₹1,378cr

Our Bureau

Mumbai | Bengaluru: Chinese tech giant Alibaba has exited One97 Communications, the parent entity of fintech firm Paytm, by selling its remaining 3.3% stake through block deals on Friday. Alibaba, Com Singapore E-Commerce Pvt Ltd sold 2.14 crore shares for ₹1,377.31 crore, NSE data showed.

The shares were sold at ₹642.74 apiece, Morgan Stanley Asia (Singapore) bought shares worth ₹122 crore, while the remaining buyers were not immediately clear.

Paytm shares have rallied 24% in the last one week on the back of healthy December quarter results and major global brokerages turning bullish and raising target prices on the stock. However, the stock plunged 8.8% to close at ₹600.20 on Friday.

Earlier this month, brokerage firm Macquarie Research raised its 12-month target price for Paytm stock to ₹600 in a report released after slashing the target price of the scrip twice last year, from ₹1,200 to ₹600, and then to ₹450. On January 13, Alibaba Group sold a 3.1% stake in the Indian digital payments company for ₹1,031 crore ($125 million).

At the end of December, Alibaba held a 6.26% stake in Paytm. Alibaba has previously sold shares in e-grocer BigBasket and food delivery firm Zomato. In November, Japan's SoftBank Group sold 29 million shares of Paytm, or a 4.5% stake, worth about $300 million, through a block deal. The lock-in period for pre-initial public offering investors of Paytm ended on November 15.

Moody's Downgrades Outlook on 4 Adani Cos

But rating agency affirms credit ratings of the cos

Our Bureau

Kolkata: Moody's Investors Service on Friday downgraded the outlook on four Adani group companies to 'negative' from 'stable' while affirming the credit ratings on these entities.

These companies are Adani Green Energy, Adani Green Energy Restricted (AGEL RG-1), Adani Transmission Step One (ATSOL) and Adani Electricity Mumbai.

The global ratings company said these entities may also face rating downgrades in the event of funding or refinancing challenges and credit profile deterioration.

"These rating actions follow the significant and rapid decline in the market equity values of the Adani Group companies following the recent release of a report from a short-seller highlighting governance concerns in the group," Moody's said.

The change in the outlook to 'negative' on Adani Green Energy is on account of the company's large capital spending programme and dependence on sponsor support, potentially in the form of subordinated debt or shareholder loans, which will likely be less certain in the current environment, the ratings agency said.

The change in the outlook on AGEL RG-1 factored in the refinancing risk associated with $500 million of bonds maturing in December 2024. Moody's said it recognised that the project finance structure of AGEL RG-1 provides protection from any contagion risk from the broader der Adani Group.

It said that the outlook on ATSOL is due to the modest hedging in Adani Transmission's credit metrics relative to the minimum tolerance level under Moody's base case scenario, which limits the group's ability to withstand a material increase in funding cost or reduced funding access.

The change in outlook for Adani Electricity Mumbai is due to the likely reduction in its funding access and likely increase in funding costs, Moody's said.

It said that an upgrade of the ratings on these companies is unlikely in the near term given the negative outlook. However, it may consider improvement in rating outlook to 'stable' if the entities concerned can demonstrate ability to meet their growth funding and refinancing requirements, and if management can effectively implement timely and effective countermeasures to preserve the companies' credit metrics—including a reduction in capital spending and financial leverage with support from the promoter.

DRI Challenges Ruling Quashing Case Against Adani Unit in SC

Rashmi Rajput

@timesgroup.com

Mumbai: The Directorate of Revenue Intelligence (DRI) has filed an appeal before the Supreme Court challenging an order of the Customs, Excise & Service Tax Appellate Tribunal (CESTAT) quashing a case pertaining to over-invoicing allegations against Maharashtra Eastern Grid Power Transmission (MEGPTCL), a subsidiary of Adani Enterprises (AEL), court filings show. The appeal was filed by DRI on January 2. Earlier, in November, the agency had filed a similar appeal in connection with the relief granted to two other Adani group subsidiaries, Adani Power Maharashtra Ltd (APML) and Adani Power Rajasthan (APRL) in a similar case.

Between July and August,

the Mumbai bench of CESTAT had upheld an order of the adjudicating authority in favour of the two Adani group subsidiaries, quashing the show-cause notices issued against them. The CESTAT had held that the investigation carried out by the DRI was "incomplete". The tribunal had opined that while the department submitted the documents received from the Indian banks, it failed to make the foreign banks join the probe.

"Tribunal further observed that the department cannot seek re-determination of value on the basis of documents which cannot be admissible as evidence. DRI had alleged that the companies indulge in over-valuation and funds were siphoned abroad through an UAE based intermediary

These appeals have been filed under section 130(B) of the Customs Act that allows the agency to file an appeal before the Supreme Court.

According to the SC website, the case pertaining to the DRI's appeal filed in November is likely to be listed on February 13. However, this is a computer-generated listing.

Meanwhile, sources told ET that the DRI will not be submitting any fresh evidence before the apex court and the appeals will be argued only on points of law. "However, if a fact is not appreciated, the concurrent law could be argued upon," said a person privy to the matter. "As the tribunal had taken up the appeals together and passed orders in quick succession, the SC may also take up the two appeals together and pass its order," the person added.

Adanis Hire NY Law Firm to Fight Hindenburg Report

Our Bureau

Mumbai: The Adani Group has engaged New York-based law firm Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz to take on Hindenburg Research, the financial research firm that accused the Indian conglomerate of stock manipulation and fraudulent accounting in late January that saw the group's stock prices tanking, a media report said.

The US-based short seller Hindenburg Research published its report last month accusing the Indian conglomerate of improper use of offshore tax havens and stock manipulation, in response to which the Adani countered with a 435-page report, dismissing the claims.

The Adani Group hiring one of the most expensive law firms in the US also reflects the tremendous pressure that the group is currently under, a report by Financial Times said.
